

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 8, 2015

CONTACT
Jillian Fornito
215-238-0990
jfornito@interdependence.org

Central Bankers to Discuss Economic Outlook in Europe

MADRID, SPAIN –

What: Central Banking Series Event

This half-day, public conference will explore the outlook of central bankers in Europe through a series of sessions featuring premier international leaders in the economic and finance industry.

Where: Rafael del Pino Foundation
C/ Rafael Calvo, 39, 28010 Madrid, España

When: May 13, 2015, from 4:45 to 7 p.m.

Who: This public event will feature the following leaders in monetary policy and banking:

- David E. Altig, Ph.D., executive vice president and director of research, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta;
- José Manuel González Páramo, executive director and chairman of the International Advisory Board of BBVA and former member of the ECB Governing Council;
- José Luis Malo de Molina, director general of economics, statistics and research, Bank of Spain;
- Vicente J. Montes Gan, director, Rafael del Piño Foundation;
- Don Rissmiller, chief economist, Strategas Research Partners;
- Jorge Sicilia, chief economist, BBVA Research on Europe;
- Livio Stracca, head of the international policy analysis division, European Central Bank;
- Daniel G. Sullivan, Ph.D., executive vice president and director of research at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago; and
- George Tsetsekos, Ph.D., dean emeritus of Drexel University's LeBow College of Business.

Contact: To register for this event or for more information, please contact Jill Fornito, director of operations at the Global Interdependence Center, at jfornito@interdependence.org or 215-238-0990.

About the Global Interdependence Center: The Global Interdependence Center is a Philadelphia-based nonprofit organization that seeks to stimulate thoughtful, global dialogue on a wide range of issues that affect the international community, including economics, health care and government. GIC convenes conferences and roundtable discussions, both domestically and internationally, to identify and address emerging global issues. For more information, visit GIC's website at www.interdependence.org.

###