SARASOTA, FLORIDA-

WHAT

Second Annual Financial Literacy Day: An Update on the Financial Markets and Economy: The Global Interdependence Center (GIC) is returning to Sarasota, FL for a conference exploring financial markets. Topics will include municipal financial market developments, the use of quantitative measurement/technical analysis in the stock market, the outlook for the U.S. stock market and the world, the U.S. banking system, and a global economic outlook. Attendees will hear a keynote address from Raphael W. Bostic, the President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, whose Atlanta-headquartered district includes the State of Florida. Concluding the agenda is a reception, as well as a book signing, with speaker, GIC Board Member, and author of Ford Men: From Inspiration to Enterprise, Christopher Whalen. Industry professionals and students alike are invited to attend.
