

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT
Colleen Murphy, GIC
215-238-0990

cmurphy@interdependence.org

Delegation of U.S. Economists and Local Leaders to attend central banking conference with President & CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO-

WHAT

On Thursday, February 27, 2020 the Global Interdependence Center (GIC) will be holding a public conference in partnership with the Banco de México. Presentation topics will include domestic perspectives, trade, and outlook on United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement, and the future of agriculture. As a part of the conference, attendees will hear economic outlooks from central bank officials, Alejandro Diaz de León, the Governor of Banco de México, and Charles Evans, the President & CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, the conference keynote speakers.

WHO

- Alejandro Diaz de León, Governor, Banco de México
- Charles Evans, President & CEO, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

WHEN

Thursday, February 27, 2020 | 9:15 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

WHERE

Club de Banqueros
(Address: Calle 16 de Septiembre No. 27)

###

Contact: To register for this event or for more information please contact Colleen Murphy, Manager of Marketing and Communications, at cmurphy@interdependence.org or 215-238-0990.

About the Global Interdependence Center: The Global Interdependence Center (GIC) is a Philadelphia-based nonprofit organization that seeks to stimulate thoughtful, global dialogue on a wide range of issues that affect the international community, including economics, health care and government. GIC convenes conferences and roundtable discussions, both domestically and internationally, to identify and address emerging global issues. For more information, visit GIC’s website at www.interdependence.org.